

Student of the Month for January 2012

Sophia est optima discipula Latina. Cotidie parata laborare venit et magnam cupiditatem cognoscere habet. Sua opera est exacta et enarrata et sua scientia linguae est fortissima. Est strenua particeps in camera et semper dat responsum, auxilium amico aut rogare profundam quaestionem. Gravis cupiditas cognoscere et referre Latinam mundo indicat se optimam discipulam esse. Eam mihi docere placet!

Sophia is an excellent Latin student. She comes everyday prepared to work and has a great passion to learn the language. Her work is precise and organized, but more importantly displays her strong grasp of the language. She is an active participant in class and is always willing to give a response, help a friend or ask a thoughtful question. Her true desire to learn and relate Latin to the world makes her an outstanding student. It is my pleasure to teach her!
